FINANCE AND TRADE.

THE FINANCIAL CONDITION IU Memphis can very well be described in these words from the St. Louis Globe: "The whole tenor of affairs was that of dailness, there being nothing special in trade to stimulate the use of full sums of bank money." A dispatch of Monday from | merca there. The necessary documents Chicago to the St. Louis Globe says: "In are in course of preparation, and the the rapid decline which has taken place | parties whose names and brands appear in the provision market for the last few on the fraudulently packed barrels will of the day; Pacific Mail declining I per days, and especially to-day, a number of have an opportunity of meeting a full cent. Transactions to-day aggre-amail firms have been compelled to give investigation." The St. Louis Globe of gated 112,000 shares, of which 18,000 way, and to-day two firms rather more Friday reports: "The grain markets were Pacific Mail, 25,000 Western for "more," but remote points are urg-ent. The distursements of silver coin expeeds the production at this time, and the supply will be more rapidly diminshed by reason of the usual annual stopafter date the director of the mint promam that the coinage shall be increased; Hay is not changed; the market is full, lat on, which is a close imitation of supply and very quiet. There is nothing the genuine. The only manner of dedoing in bran. There is a big supply on tecting them, it says, is the date of 1876, the market. Butter is very plenty, and no new coin having been issued of that | continues to arrive. The damand is exdate, and noticing the dead sound they ceedingly light, and prices are down give, nolike silver. Besides counterfeit low. There is a big lot of poor on hand quarters and twenties, in imitation of that dealers are very anxious to get rid off he new silver coin, there are in circula- at any price, but they find it very slow tion counterfeit five dollars on the Mer-chants national bank of New Bedford, demand is only fair, and dealers were on the Northampton national bank, the offering yesterday morning at 10c. | Storing | Selling | Sell THE COTTON MARKET underwent another change yesterday. The telegrams werd "mixed;" not altogether unpropitions, but yet such as to affect our market unfaverably. Liverpool spots went up to 64 for middling uplands, but arriv-nle opened with 1-32d lower, and closed "flat." New York "caved in," and prices went down id, while futures were weak and lower. New Orleans was as high as $2.90 for choice, but their reglost to at the close. In our market holders were regretting that they did not sell on the day before, and the market was case, with some sales at ic below quota-tions, while the show of cotton was bet-ter than on the preceding day or two. ter than on the preceding day or two.

The New York Times of Wednesday states that at the annual meeting of the at $2 a case. Eggs were quiet, mostly cotton exchange the board of managers of the cotton exchange presented their is unchanged in price and is dull, as is that the past year has been one of great depression in the cotton trade, the price or cotton having declined to a lower point than has been witnessed since the termination of the war. The sales of cotion for future delivery since last report were 7,819,900 bales. The receipts for the ensuing year are calimated at $44,000, and the expenses at $41,177, leaving a probable surplus of $2523, and, in view of this re-sult, the board recommended that the dues for the coming year befixed at $75. The present membership numbers 400. The board called the attention of the numbers to the subject of a system of ife insurance, which has been adopted by the stock exchange. Having reviewed the business of the year, the soard closes its report by stating that it has had under consideration the question of requiring every party who issues a notice of delivery" of cotton, to give the export as well as the domestic dethe marks and place where the delivery s to be made, as is the custom in Liverpool. Quotations at the Memphis cotton exchange were as follows:
